10th June 2024

Dear Parents/Carers,

Firstly, we congratulate Year 11 so far on their excellent efforts towards their exams and we encourage them to maintain this level for the remaining papers.

Given that this week the number of examinations is thinning out, from Tuesday lunch time, Year 11 students will cease their full-time attendance at school. From Tuesday lunch time, students will only attend school for their exams and to enable them to access any pre-arranged exam booster sessions. Outside of these times they will not be in school. As you are responsible for them, at the times when they are not in school, we are giving you detail of these timings below.

We will also share this information with students.

Tuesday 11th June

All students attend as normal in the morning for their Chemistry exam.

Students are in normal lessons periods 3 and 4. Those studying History are in a booster session period 3 and then early lunch period 4.

Students not studying History will then leave school at 1:20pm. Students studying History have their exam from 1:20pm.

(If students not studying History wish to stay for school buses or to be picked up at the end of the day, they can stay for lunch at 1:20pm and period 6.)

Wednesday 12th June

Only Construction students are in school for a booster session. They should arrive for 8:45am and will leave at 10:05am.

All other students remain at home.

Thursday 13th June

All students remain at home. They should access a booster session for Physics at 9:05am via Teams, and a session for Geography at 10:05am via Teams, from home. These sessions are pre-recorded.

Friday 14th June

Geography students attend as normal in the morning for their exam. They will remain in school until the afternoon for their Physics exam.

All other students should remain at home in the morning and arrive in school for 12:30pm to be ready for their Physics exam in the afternoon.

We will send further information regarding the examinations w/c 17th June later this week.

Yours sincerely

Mr D Juric
